SAN FRANCISO WHITE SLAVE LAW

House Judiciary Committee to Consider Kahn Resolution.

McNAB'S SUCCESSOR.

President Wilson And Attorney General Reynolds to Make Selection—Delay in the Inquiry.

Washington, June 26.—The Democratic Administration begins to investigate itself this afternoon, when the House Judiciary Commitee considers the Kahn resolution calling for the files of the Department of Justice in the San Francisco white-slave and the Western Fuel Company cases.

While the Judiciary Committee begins an inquiry which may result in a request for the records of a co-ordinate branch of the Governmet, the echoes of a renewed attack upon the Adminstration by District Attorney McNab, resigned, are still heard, and the President and the Attorney General are exchanging views on the selection of a special prosecutor for the white-slave case.

Cogressman Kahn is not satisfied with the publication of a part of the record in the Caminetti Diggs case, and the prospects are the Judiciary Committee will feel obliged to report teh resolution offered by the Californian. The same statement applies to the delay in the prosecution of the fuel company.

Congressman Kahn expects to put this resolution through the Judiciary Committee this afternoon. Such a resolution as this one, calling for information ad corrosepondence of an executive department, is privileged by the rules of the House, and must come up on the floor next Monday, in any event.

It is expected that before night the President and the Attorney General will settle on the special prosecutor who will take McNab's place in conducting the trials of Drew Caminetti and Maury Diggs on the charge of having lured Sacramento High School girls out of the State. The President made formal recommendation to the Attorney General yesterday afternoon of several names including that of Francis J. Heney and others already mentioned, but no final steps were taken.

The President was unable to give much time to this matter because of engagements to discuss the currency bill.

ACCUSED MAN'S FATAL LEAP.

Waiting Arraignment, Throws Himself From Court House Window.

Terre Haute, Ind., June 26.—Jno. Brantlinger, charged with larceny, leaped from the office of the prosecutor on the third floor of the court house yesterday and was killed, while the prosecutor was preparing an information against him.

Brantlinger hid in a saloon Monday night, robbed it after it had been closed, and while spending the money freely was caught after a fierce battle with the police. As he waited in the prosecutor's office yesterday pending arraignment he leisurely walked toward the window and before those in the office could prevent it, leaped from the window, striking on the pavement, and was dead when officials reached him.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The French aviator Marcel G. Brindejonc des Moulinias, who recently made the flight from Paris to St. Petersburg, arrived in Stockholm yesterday morning. He crossed the Baltic in his aeroplane fro mReval in four hours, including the time spent in making a descent on the Swedish coast in order to ascertain his whereabouts. He intends to start again on June 27 for Copenhagen on his way back to Paris.

Mrs. Millie Nazzaro, a cashier employed in the Hotel Vesuvius, Boston, was shot while at her desk yesterday by her husband, who turned the revolver on himself. The husband fell dead. The woman was rushed to the city hospital, where she is dying. Diners in the restaurant fled at the first shot. The couple had separated some time ago.

George Thatcher, 64, the famous minstrel, died yesterday at the home of his nephew, Joseph M. Thatcher, in East Orange, N. J. He died of cancer. Thatcher was at the height of his fame when he headed the aggregation known as Thatcher, Primrose and West's minstrels.

Six foreigners riding in a closed car on the Manitou Electric Railway, near Rochester, N. Y., became frightened yesterday when a fuse blew out and jumped through a window, falling under the wheels of a trailer. Two of them were instantly killed and the other four so badly injured they probably will die.

A strong force of Bulgarian troops attacked the Servian position as Zletoto,and Rathkavtz, in Macedonia, at 1 o'clock yesterday morning. Fighting was still in progress at a late hour.

News was received by the war office in Madrid yesterday from Tetuan, Morocco, that 100 Moors had been killed and 500 wounded in a bloody battle with Spanish soldiers in the Spanish section of Morocco. The tribesmen were defeated and retreated in great disorder.

A dramatic scene was caused in the the French chamber of Deputies yesterday by the sudden death of Deputy Eudardo Aynard, a Progressive Republican, representing Lyons. While chatting with friends and making his way toward the platform where he was to deliver an important speech, he fainted and died shortly afterward without recovering consciousness. The doctors who were hurriedly called, attributed his death to heart failure. He had spent most of Tuesday night preparing his speech.

A dispatch from Vernal, Utah, says: Crazed with jealousy, while the sun dance, the greatest of the Ute Indian festivals was in progress Tuesday, Tim Inchwitch shot and killed his squaw and then fired a bullet into his own head. As the braves were dancingInchwitch's squaw approached the pole around which they were holding the festivities and placed a bundle of sweets at its foot. A young brave bent over as if to take some of the sweets, greatly enraging Inchwitch. The squaw noticed his anger and ran away. Inchwitch followed and shot her dead. The Indain picked up his dead squaw, carried her to his teepee and then killed himself. Several white persons witnessing the dance became alarmed at the tragedy and hurriedly left the reservation, fearing that the Indians would rise against them.

Frightened into spasms by fear that he was going to be ducked under a wave, Israel Brounstein, two years old, died yesterday at Atlantic City, N. J., when his mother sought to cure the attack by plunging him into the water. The shock of the sudden dip stopped his heart, and he was dead before his mother had lifted him above the comber.

ACTIVE CRUSADE ON THE LOBBYISTS

Will Hunt Men Chargedd With Attempts to Influence Legislation.

PERTINENT QUERIES.

Washigton, June 26.—The Senate lobby investigating committee is determined to get the answer to these questions:

Are big financial interests, or men prominent in the financial world, being preyed upon by certain smooth individuals who seek to make them believe that they are able to pull wires in Washington with unusual skill?

If so, are these individuals using the names of and impersonating members of Congress?

The lobby probing committee will not be able to call witnesses to answer these questions raised by the testimony of Judge Robert S. Lovett, head of the Union Pacific, in his testimony last evening until after the Senate Democratic caucus has completed its work on the tariff bill.

This phase of the lobby inquiry promises to become not less interesting and sensational than the inquiry into the lobbies working to influence legislation and shape public opinion with respect to legislative matters.

The possibility that efforts have been made and traps carefully set to dupe, not only financiers but also ambitious but innocent persons seeking to obtain appointments from the government is suggested as one of the ramifications of this business. This phase of the lobby situation was not suggested by Judge Lovett, but by recent developments in which a person seeking a diplomatic post enlisted the services of a well known individual in Washington.

Judge Lovette testified that a long and determined effort had been made to have Edward Lauterbach, a New York lawyer, retained by his company "to grease the wheels" in Washington and hold down agitation in Congress against the Union Pacific dissolution plan.

No corruption or corrupt methods were alleged, but Judge Lovett declared that a person, representing himself as Congressman Riordan of New York, had urged over the telephone that Lauterbach be retained, and suggested that employment of Lauterbach might avert trouble in Congress. Judge Lovett further testified a like conversation had occurred between a man who represented himself as Riordan and Maxwell Evarts, counsel for the Southern Pacific.

WOMAN FINED.

Justice Crutchfield Says Officers Must be Respected.

Richmond, June 26.—"Policemen must be protected from abuse," said Justice Crutchfield yesterday, and fined Mrs. A. E. Thorpe, proprietress of the Rex theatre, $5 for using abusive language to Patrolman W. A. Moore. Mrs. Thorpe appealed the case. "If you report me you are no gentleman," is what Mrs. Thorpe said she told the policeman yesterday afternoon when he mentioned that he would have to file a complaint about a cellar being out of repair.

MOTORBOAT OWNERS FINED.

More Than Twenty-five Volations of Pilot Regulations Discovered.

Fines amounting to nearly $4,000 have been imposed upon owners of motor boats and other river craft operating in the vicinity of Washington by officials of the Bureau of Navigation, Department of Commerce, as a result of the vigilant inspection work conducted during the last few weeks by the motor boat Tarragon. More than twety-five violations of the pilot regulations have been discovered.

Among the latest fines imposed are the following: Power boat Rover, having no means of extinguishing burning gasoline, $100; power boat Somerset, no hailing port painted on stern, $10, an unarmed launch not showing proper lights while under way at light; 100; an unarmed power boat, having six passengers aboard and only one life-preserver, $100, and canoeist, not having lantern in boat at night, $200.

A report of the fixing of the fines has been made to the custom-house at Georgetown, and the offenders are now being given opportunity to file sworn statements concerning the charges. The fines are subject to reduction upon the presentation of mitigating depositions.

The revenue cutter Apache came up the river last Monday, but left last night for a cruise down the bay. While in port officers aboard her inspected a number of motor boats. No violations of the law were discovered. The Tarragon is expected to remain in the Potomac until the latter part of the week.

SCHOONER'S NARROW ESCAPE.

Fouls on Trap Net Poles Set in the Channel.

After about a month spent in summer fishing on Chesapeake Bay and its tributaries the schooner Ada Ballenger, Capt. Faunce, formerly owned by Theophilus Ballenger, of Alexandria, has returned to Fairy Landing, near Mount Vernon.

Capt. Faunce reports having had a narrow escape from serious injury to his vessel on her way from the James river. The vessel was underway one night early in the week and was being shoved along at good speed by sail and gasoline engine. Suddenly her headway was stopped and the vessel seemed to rise out of the water. Investigation showed that she had run upon abandoned trap-nets poles, and, to get her free, men had to be sent over the bow of the schooner with saws and hatches to cut the poles from under her.

Soundings showed over thirty-feet of water, the poles being located directly in the path of vessels bound to the Potomac. The Ballenger was injured about the bow by fouling the poles, which were six inches across the butt. The existence of these obstructions to navigation will be brought to the attention of the engineer authorities in charge of Chesapeake bay channels.

COMMERCE COURT TO GO.

House Democrats, in Caucus, Agree Upon its Abolition—Budget Plan Turned Down.

Washington, June 26.—House Democrats in caucus yesterday agreed upon abolition of the Commerce Court as a party policy and, turning deaf ears to pleas from their leaders, rejected a plan for the creation of a budget committee to control appropriations.

Representative Broussard, of Louisana, champion of the Commerce Court, precipitated caucus on the mooted question by offerng a resolution to authorize hearings on the Sims bill to abolish the court.

Speaker Clark announced the tribunal as useless and expensive, and Representative Adamson, of Georgia, chairman of the interstate Commerce Committee, offered a resolution declaring it to be the sense of the caucus that the court be abolished during taken to protect and provide for ng taken to protect and provide for jurisdiction over pending and future litigation. The resolution was adopted by viva voce vote.

CLEAN SWEEP OF THE DIPLOMATIC CORPS

MERIT SYSTEM TEST.

No Minister or Ambassador Who Has Held Positions Save Under Cleveland Will be Returned.

Washington, June 26.—Secretary of State Bryan will make a clean sweep of the diplomatic corps, as it is now constituted. It has been announced the consular service would continue to be run on lines of merit.

But it became known and understood at the Capitol today that no minister or ambassador who has held office under previous administrations—with the posible exception of the Cleveland administration—is to remain.

The reasons are purely political though not so avowed by the State Department. Secretary Bryan, according to men who have talked with him, holds that a man who goes to a foreign post "fresh from the people," is the best diplomat. He avows the idea that such a man has more capacity to represent this country and its institutions than a man who has bene for years in diplomatic service. This applies, in the opinion of the secretary, even though a man has had years of training and has been promoted from the ranks to the position of minister or ambassador.

NORFOLK NAVY YARD.

Representative Holland Asks Congress to Give Millions for Future Improvements.

Washington, June 26.—Congressman E. E. Holland, of the second Virginia district, has introduced two bills in the house calling for far-reachng improvements in the Norfolk navy yard.

One bill asked for an appropriation of $3,000,000 for the construction of a 1,000-foot dry dock, nad the other bill asks for $50,000,000 with which to build railroad connections, launching slips, cranes and provide other equipment so as to make the Norfolk navy yard second to none in America.

"The proposed erection of a mammoth fortress at Cape Henry means the lower Chesapeake bay and Hampton Roads will be the great American naval rendezvous," says Colonel Holland. "To keep pace with this work the Norfolk navy yard should be equipped to handle any American warship that will be placed in the water. It should be made a first-class yard. It should be enlarged and equipped not only to repair all the big ships quickly, but to build the big warships. Should congress authorize the money I ask for these improvements, the biggest warship yet planned can be constructed at the Norfok yard.'"

Chairman Padgett, of the house naval affairs committee, believes the Chesapeake bay is destined to be the future naval base for American fleets on a large scale.

He is now located in Charlotte, N. C., and has been engaged in important work for the government since he last visited here.

Extensive preparations are being made on the camp grounds near Mt. Vernon for the annual campmeeting of the Pentacostal Methodist church of Washington, which will commence on July 3rd. A large force of men are at work cleaning up the property for the meeting, and 50 tents have already been erected. The Rev. Dr. Hasley, of Washington, is in charge of the meeting, which will remain in session for about three weeks.

ADDITIONAL REVENUE.

Alexandria Benefitted by Change of Domicile of Steamboat Companies.

By reason of the change of domicile from Richmond to Alexandria, of three of the steamboat companies operating between Washington and Potomac river points, this city will receive several thousand dollars additional revenue from taxation on the steamboat companies.

The three companies and the value of their property in Virginia as fixed by the State Corporation Commission is as follows: Colonial Beach Co., $45,000; Potomac and Chesapeake Steamboat Company, $60,000; Mount Vernon and Marshall Hall Steamboat Company, $24,000; Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company, Company, $18,000.

Charles H. Callahan, Commissioner of Revenue, has issued the assessment against these companies on the basis as fixed by the State and the bills for the city taxes are now in the hands of P. F. Gorman, collector of taxes.

Charter Granted.

The Mount Vernon Seminary, Incorporated, of this city, with a maximum capital stock of $50,000 and a minimum of $10,000, has been granted a charter by the State Corporation Commission. The officers are E. J. Somers, president; A. G. Hensley, vice-president; H. Grace Brouse, secretary and treasurer all of Washington.

FELL DOWN STEPS.

Mrs. Charles N. Rauch, of 223 north Royal street, narrowly escaped a serious accident at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joseph West, early this afternoon when she fell part of the way down stairs, strking her head.

Her daughter had just asked her to secure something on the second floor and in attempting to climb the stairs, which are narrow and with a sharp turn, she missed her footing, possibly overcome by the heat, and fell, striking her head.

Considerable excitement was created in the neighborhood for several minutes before the lady regained consciousness, and it was found that she was not seriously injured. Dr. McGuire, who was immediately called, gave her treatment.

TO PROBE CAUSE OF GIRL'S DEATH

Governor Goldsborough Will be Asked to Investigate Case.

LIKE BOSTON CASE.

Generally Believed Miss Wainwright Was Victim of Operation and Poison—To Resume Inquest.

Salisbury, Md., June 26.—Relatives of Miss Florence Wainwright today will appeal to Governor Goldsborough because they do not believe local authorities are making sufficient progress toward the solution of her mysterious death. The ywill ask the Governor to set detectives on the case, get the facts and make arrests. When the coroner's jury meets again tomorrow it is said a charge of murder will be laid against at least one person prominent in Eastern Ssore affairs. Two arrests may be made in an effort to discover who supplied the poison found with Miss Wainwright's body.

The evidence furnished by Dr. J. McFadden Dick, who performed the autopsy, shows Miss Wainwright may have suffered a fate like that of Avis Linnell, who was murdered in Boston by Richeson. Dr. Dick found evidence that an illegal operation had been attempted.

The stomach and a box of greenish tablets marked quinine, found near the dead girl are at Johns Hopkins University hospital for examination.

It is believed Florence Wainwright was either murdered or driven by fear of shame to take a powerful drug. When found the girl was sitting at her desk in the office of the Home Gas Company with her hair disheveled and dress loosened.

The finding of hairpins in the yard indicates that the girl's death did not occur in the room where her body was found. It is thought she was placed in a sitting postion at her desk after she had died, probably in the rear yard.

NEW DOCK FOR STEAMERS.

Norfolk and Washington Company Secures Terminal Facilites at Norfolk

The Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company has recently acquired improved terminal facilities at the foot of Front street, Norfolk, which were used for the first time Tuesday, when the steamer Northland was berthed. Heretofore the company's steamer have lain alongside a wharf at Norfolk; hereafter they will be placed inside the dock, as are steamers of the Bay line and others.

Th new terminal will afford better facilities for loading and unloading freight, while better surroundings will be afforded passengers leaving or going aboard the steamers. The old pier was at foot of Main street.

The Norfolk and Washington Company contemplate making extensive alterations in the Newport New, intending to spend about $100,000 in converting the boat into an up-to-date passenger and freight steamer. This steamer was built at Newport News about twenty years ago. At the time she was launched she was the equal in size, speed and luxuriousness of any steamer on the Chesapeake. Large steamers have since been constructed for the line, and the Newport News has for several ycars been used as an auxiliary boat between Washington, Alexandria and Norfolk.

D. J. Callahan, President of the company, was in Norfolk Tuesday and during his stay in that city he announced that the company purposes to inaugurate a day line next summer, and that should the enterprise prove satsfactory a day boat will be run regularly. Many people desire to take the trip on the bay and Potomac by daylight, and it is supposed the Newport News, after having been overhauled and improved, will make day trips.

We have now in progress our annual summer sale of Turkish Bath Towels, which has become a permanent event here each season, and is gaining steadily in popularity because of the excellence of values and extensiveness of assortments.

These Bath Towels are perfect, with the exception of slight oil spots, dropped stitches or similar imperfections, which in many instances cannot be detected, and will not in any way affect the wearing qualities of the towels. Only a factory that recognies such a high standard as does this one would term these towels seconds.

Any one in need of Towels is urged to take advantage of this sale—the most attractive and favorable opportunity of the whole season to supply needs of this kind. Put up in bundles of six, and because of the special prices, and the short duration of the occasion, will not be sold in less than half dozen lots.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION.

MYSTERIOUS DROWNING.

Body Found in James River Bearing Wounds.

The body of William Roth a Russian Jew, was found in James river, near the cinder dump of the Princess Furnace Company, a day or two ago. Roth was considerably bruised about the back, head and chest, and there was a deep cut under the left eye. His clothing was found concealed in the sand near where the body was found, and there is every reason to believe that Roth was the victim of foul play.

Little is known of Roth about Glen Wilton, as he had been there but a short time having moved there from New York with a number of other men to work in the ore mines as a miner. It is reported that he leaves a wife and two children, who reside in London, England. An inquest was held and three men are under arrest. They are in jail at Fincastle, awaiting the action of the grand jury. The discovery of the body and the arrest of the three men charged with the crime, created no end of excitement around Glen Wilton. It was the first crime of any note to occur at Glen Wilton since the murder of a young white girl by a colored youth, three or four years ago, and for which time the negro paid the death penalty in the penitentiary.

PIPE AIR TO BURIED MAN.

Save His Life Three Hours After Seemingly Fatal Cave-in.

Pittsburgh, Pa., June 26.—Thousands of persons late Tuesday watched the frantic efforts of many workmen to rescue three comrades caught in tons of crumbling gravel at Smithfield street and Sixth avenue, where an office building is being erected. The first were rescued within a few minutes; the second in an hour, but the third was not brought to the street surface for almost three hours.

During that time, the third man, Joseph Gabrielle, was kept alive by air forced through the gravel by four iron pipes.

All three suffering from injuries and exhaustion, are expected to recover.

CORPSE DROPS FROM DOOR.

Wife Back, Grewsomely Greeted by Dead Husband.

Columbia, Pa., June 26.—When Mrs. Lewis Siebert returned home here late Tuesday night, after a three day's visit to relatives in Mount Valley, she entered the house, and opening a door leading to the second floor, was horrified to see the body of a man fall to the floor in front of her and remain in a sitting posture.

The horrified woman took another look and found that it was the body of her husband.

Siebert was last seen alive Sunday evening and it was supposed that when he was retiring he lost his balance and fell downstairs breaking his neck. The body lay on the warm stairway nearly three days.

The Deputy Coroner decided that death was due to a broken neck as a result of the fall.

SHOT IN REVENGE.

Stranger Locates Man Who Stole Wife and Fatally Wounds Him.

Johnsonburg, Pa., June 26.—A stranger fired five shots at Bruce Cleo, aged 39, an employe of the New York and Pennsylvania Paper Company, yesterday afternoon, two causing mortal wounds. Then he escaped.

The stranger arrived in Johnsonburg yesterday morning, and in conversation with the clerk at the Hotel Stressly, he said that he was looking for Cleo, who six months ago ran away with his wife from Wheeling, W. Va.

After leaving the hotel the stranger went to the home of Cleo, where he had a long talk with the woman he claimed was his wife.

Then he went to the paper mill, asked to see Cleo, and when the latter came in sight, opened fire. Cleo was hurried to a hospital where he will die.

SUIT FOR DIVORCE.

Outcome of Sensational Police Court Trial.

Suffolk, Va., June 26.—Divorce proceedings were instituted here yesterday between Mrs. Isabelle Rison and her husband, John Waddill Rison. Mrs. Rison entered a suit for absolute divorce. John Waddill Rison is a prominent druggist here, being part owner with his wife in two handsome stores. He is a native of Richmond.

Mrs. Rison, who is a woman of some means, was Miss Isabelle Turner, of Isle of Wight county, a daughter of Beverly Turner, the prominent farmer of that county, who, some fifteen nyears ago, was hot nad killed by Andrew Gilligan.

The divorce procedings are the outcome of a sensational police court trial in the city of Norfolk when Rison was arrested at the instance of his wife and was fined $20 on a statutory offense, to which he plead guilty. The couple have two children annd live in a fashionable residential section of the city.

LETTER ON WAY EIGHT YEARS.

James M. Dorn Gets Missive Sent to Him June 12, 1905.

Bristol, Va., June 26.—James M. Dorn, of Bristol, himself in the railway mail service, yesterday experienced an example indicating that even Uncle Sam's perfect system of handling the mails does not always ensure against delays. There was delivered to him a letter which had been mailed at Spartanburg, S. C., and addressed to Columbia, the same state, June 12, 1905. The letter had just been forwarded to Dorn here. An attached note explained that this letter had been thrown behind the casing in the postal car, and had ridden there unobserved for more than eight years being discovered only when the casing was removed in repairing the car.

SHOT BY BROTHER-IN-LAW.

Jonesville, Va., June 26.—George Haley, while working in a harvest field cutting wheat, was shot and probably fatally wounded Tuesday by Partar Mayo, his brother-in-law, near Benhur, this county. Mayo accused Haley of kissing his wife, Mayo got a shotgun and five cartridges, went to the field where Haley was working and crawled on his hands ad knees through the uncut wheat within shooting distance of Haley and opened fire on him. Mayo was arrested by Sheriff Robbins.

Funny But Costly.

The spectacle which Governor Blease presents in bucking up against the United States in regard to the Federal military law is an amusing hot weather incident for people outside of South Carolina. But why should that noble state be turned into a low comedy stage for the antics of a political buffoon? Why should it allow itself to be segregated and quarantined politically throughout the out-of-date barbarism of a relic of the dark ages? Blease affords genuine amusement to the rest of the country; but is he not a costly investment for South Carolina?—Baltimore Sun.

QUERY FROM THE WEST.

Richmond, June 26.—It was very forcibly brought to the attention of the head of the municipal government yesterday that some people, in some sections of the country, do not know the war is over yet! Worst than that, there are residents of the wild and woolly west who are unaware that Richmond has fallen as the capital of the Confederate states; that the battle flags are furled; that Richmond fought its son under the Stars ad Stripes against Spain in 1899, and that Richmond has only comparativly recently welcomed with President of the United States without a salvo of lead and has entertained the Governors of Northern States with another tune than the music of musketry.

In Mayor Ainslie's mail yesterday morning was the following communication from a citizen of Carson Iowa:

"To settle a dispute, I will ask you to answer the following question: Wasn't last Fourth of July the first time the Union flag floated ove ryour city?

"HARRY WATTS."

The Mayor settled the dispute and made note of the conclusion of the war in the following reply:

"Replying to the question contained in your letter of the 23d instant, you are informed that except during the time of the War Between the States the Union flag has always floated over Richmond. The flag was raised over the State Capitol immediately after the evacuation of this city, and no other flag has since been flown here."

She had just arrived at Marion from her home n Abingdon for a visit. She was walking with two young women whom she was visiting. The three came to a grade crossing and attempted to pass front of an eastbound passenger train. Miss Hagy stumbled and fell. Engineer George Cook, of Bristol, was unable to stop and she was run over and killed The girl was a daughter of Rhea Hagy, of Abingdon, one of the best known manufacturers in this section of the State.

The Truth About Electric Cooking
For large families where the average domestic help is employed and a large amount of cooking done, Electric Cooking will be found more expensive, and in most cases not advisable.
In small families, where no help is employed, and where nice equipment is desired, Electric cooking will be found many times more convenient, more certain in results and safer in operation—as well as reasonable in cost.
In every family a few utensils for early breakfast emergency and special uses—and for cheering up cold meals with a warm dish or two—is highly advisable from every standpoint, including that of economy.

SHAKEUP IN DIPLOMATIC CIRCLES.

According to reports in circulation in Washington, there is to be a general ousting of ministers and ambassadors by the present administration. Secretary Bryan is quoted as saying that only men "fresh from the people" should fill such positions.

Many observant people have from time to time suggested that the custom of sending representatives to foreign courts has seen its day, and in these times of ocean telegraphic lines, fast steamships and other modes of transportation and communication such masters of ceremonies are lagging superflus upon the stage.

Besides, filling the position of minister or ambassador to a first class power is an expensive honor, it generally requiring all the salary received to pay rent for a house sufficient to keep up the dignity of the post.

Representatives "fresh from the people," to use Mr. Bryan's words, as well as those who have moved in more select circles have been criticised and proven failures in some cases.

Benjamin Franklin was "fresh from the people" when he attempted to get the British king and cabinet to listen to colonial grievances. They attempt to drown his patriotism in banquets and social attentions, although he was impervious to all the blandishments of the court of St. James, but he failed to bring abotu omre satisfactory conditions for the colonies

Shortly after the close of the civil war Reverdy Johnson was regarded as a slow coach in pressing the Alabama claims, and he was charged with dining on frog legs and champagne and with being too friendly with the mother country.

Horace Greeley, "fresh from the people" played an unimportant part while filling the same position.

If it is necessary to keep up this expensive diplomatic service, it would seem that men of recognized ability and standing, with inborn genius should be selected, whether "fresh from the people" or not.

SHAVE COST HIM BRIDE.

Delay For Tonsorial Act Ends in Her Wedding To Another.

New York, June 26.—Far from being somewhat in the wilds of Honduras, ignorant that his fiance had just been married to another man. Russell H. Willward, explorer, was found resting comfortably in an apartment of the Hotel Ansonia yesterday. Millward had just learned from the newspapers that Miss Madeline Sylvester had become Mrs. Charles E. Doll. But he did not let himself become perturbed at the news.

"I am not surprised at anything happening in this crazy city," he said. "Just the same she came extremely close to marrying me. We went to the City Hall about a year ago and got the license and were going to have the mayor marry us right then. But I thought it wasn't showing much respect to my bride to be married without a clean shave. So we put it off until evening to give me time to get a shave and a haircut.

"About half past seven, when everything was ready, some friends of mine thought it would be a good joke to steal the license. They broke into my apartment and stole the license and the wedding ring. There was no wedding that night. Next morning Madeline had sort of lost her nerve, I guess. Anyway I sailed without her."

SIGN SAVES THREE FIREMEN.

Blown From Building, They Climb it Until Rescued.

New York, June 26.—Seven firemen were blown from a third story fire escape landing by a back draft from a burning lofty building at Franklin and Church streets last night. Four of the men grasped rungs of the iron ladder in falling, but the others were blown fifteen feet to a large wall sign.

Surrounded by flames, and wtih high pressure streams carefully directed around them, the three went hand-over-hand along the signboard to the second floor fire escape, now nearly red hot, where they were rescued. All seven suffered severe burns on their faces, arms and hands The estimated loss is $300,000.

"PEOPLE AND THE PEW."

Arraignment of Minister of Modern Pulpit Methods.

Philadelphia, Pa. June 26. — The weekly meeting of the Baptist ministers Monday morning was enlivened by a broadside from Rev. George E. Lombard, of the Fairmount Baptist Church, Newark, who openly ridiculed the average minister in his pulpit in an address on the "People and the Pew."

He drew a humorous picture of the pulpit, approache by the preacher sometimes in rather old-fashioned attire but usually, with something distinctively peculiar in his manner which was condoned simply because he was the minister of the Gospel. He showed the error of supposing that the plain, simple Word of God, as it is now preached, would attract a crowd, attributing any success to the preacher might have to some personal quality or to some new-fangled subject which he would introduce to hold the interest of a curious congregation. In speaking of the empty pew, the preacher said:

"A very familiar sight to the ordinary preacher, and to some of our extraordinary ones, too, is the empty pew. Oh, how faithful these pews are! They are always there to greet the speaker on every occasion, in bright or in stormy weather. They make no demonstration, but fill their places so actually, so unfailingly, and unassumingly, that the pastor cannot refrain from referring to them with tears, as among his most loyal friends.

These empty seats present a problem. How shall we fill them? Our reputation is at stake. If we don't somehow fill the seats our calling is a failure. My suggestion is to introduce new-fangled attractions. Put on a few numbers of vaudeville, or moving pictures, or theatricals, at least have an operatic screecher, a prima donna, or a high toned foreign tenor, who can warble, warble like a bird; never mind if you cannot understand a word he says. It will fill the pews and pull the people within the range of your gospel gun. But you must not have too much Gospel, either, for that is about worn out, and men want novelty more than anything else. Stand on your head or do a handspring, have a sparring match with a deacon or open a barrel of cider—do something novel if you want to draw the people."

Regarding the great number of apathetic ministers the speaker said only men with a ttle energy and forcible eloquence should be ordained, and if they by some mistake got through ordination without the proper ginger, they should be put out of the ministry.

"Brethren," he said, "if your pastor does not get fired for evangelistic zeal fire him. If your deacons don't show some spark of heat fire them. We want the church to move out of the graveyard."

DRIVEN FROM CITY.

Marshfield, Ore., Deals Promptly With Industrial Workers.

Marshfield, Ore., June 26.—Business house closed for an hour yesterday while proprietors joined several hundred men in driving two Industrial Workers of the World leaders out of town with warnings never to return.

The citizens then marched to the building where the Workers have been accustomed to gather and gave the proprietor notice that all other members of the organizaton and their sympathizers would be similarly treated.

The deported pair, W. J. Edgeworth, county secretary, and Wesley Everett, an organizer, were placed in a stall boat, supplied with food for a day or two and taken 18 miles from town before they were allowed to land. They were arrested Tuesday night on vagrancy charges and their deportation followed immediately on their release.

The Industrial Workers have been involved in several strikes in the sawmills of this region recently.

TRAIN KILLS BOY.

West Point, a., June 26.—Joseph Haybok, a six-year-old boy, who lived near Cahoke, Va., was cut in half by Southern Railway train No. 36, which left Richmond at 4:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The boy was asleep on the track.

The accident was unavoidable, as the engineer, W. E. Anotone, did not have time to stop his engine before the wheels swept over the sleeping youth.

Little "Joe" Haybok is one of several children, whose father, Albert Haybok, works in Pittsburg, Pa. The boy was living with his mother and had wandered from home.

This is the second calamity that has happened to the famiy in the past few days, the home occupied by Mrs. Haybok and her children with all of its contents, having burned to the ground several nights ago.

WALKING ON PARKING.

(Communicated.)

Editor Alexandria Gazette:

Will you put a plea in your excellent paper to urge the men, women and children in this town, to walk on the pavement, and not on the parkings, which have been put in at considerable expense to both the city and citizens. I know it is no use to try to improve our city—if such conditions continue. Each should take a personal pride in keeping the streets in good order, also forbear from throwing paper and trash in the streets.

Trustees and Commissioner's Sale of Residue.

Trustees' sale of the residue of the "Belvoir" or "White House" tract of land located in Mt. Vernon magisterial District Fairfax county Va., containing approximately 1100 acres with improvements.

By virtue of the authority vested in us by the will of Philip Otterback, deceased, and under decree of the Circuit Court of Fairfax County, Va., in the suit of Otterback vs. Bohrer, at its March and May terms, 1913, the undersigned trustees and commissioners will offer for sale at public auction in front of the Royal street entrance to the Market House in Alexandria Va., at

This tract, the old home of Lord Fairfax and separated from George Washington's home at Mt. Vernon by Dogue Creek, originally consisted of approximately twenty-seven hundred, (2,700) acres, of which 1,500 acres has been taken by the United States government for a school of Equitation of Horsemanship. The balance, between ten and twelve hundred acres consists of valuable farming lands and about eight hundred (800) acres of valuable timber It has a large deep water frontage on the Potomac river as well as a large frontage on Dogue Creek, with valuable fishing shores. The property is improved by an old mansion house, familiarly known for many years as the "White House," a club house, barns, stables, out-buildings and tenant houses. It is situated on the county road between Mt. Vernon and Accotink, and is about four miles by road from Mt. Vernon. This property is one of the most historic in the section and would make a very desirable country estate because of its location and the opportunities afforded for fishing and shooting.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Clayton Herrington, special agent of the Department of Justice at San Francisco, who sent President Wilson a telegram Sunday night appealing for the removal from office of Attorney General McReynolds, his official superior, because of the circumstances of the resignation of United States District Attorney McNab, has been suspended without pay by A. Bruce Bielaski, chief of the Bureau of Investigation of the Department of Justice. This action, it is said, is to give Herrington an opportunity to explain his telegram. If the explanation si not satisfactory officials declare tha tthe special agent probably will be summarily dealt with.

The residents of Sayville, L. I., religious and otherwise, are expectantly awaiting the formal opening of the Sayville Athletic Club, under the guidance of St. Lawrence's Roman Catholic Church, on July 4 with a series of boxing matches. Rev. Michael P. Hefferman, rector of St. Lawrence's has obtained a license from the New York State boxing commission to conduct boxing matches. The names of Rev. John Prescott of the Episcopal Church, and Rev. William Jenkins, of the Congregational Church, and Rev. Henry Zoller of the Lutheran Church, are honorary members.

Representative Martin Dies, of Texas, on Tuesday night smashed a window in a crowded Washington Railway and Electric Company car and then attempted to pummel a remonstrating conductor. Mr. Dies and his wife boarded the car near the Capitol. Collins, 19 years old, a yeoman on the President's yacht Mayflower, were stopped by a policeman in front of the District building in Washington yesterday and taken to police headquarters, where the girl was held as a fugitive from her parents. Miss Fower met Collins in New York a year and a half ago, and, notwithstanding the opposition of her parents, corresponded with him regularly until Saturday morning last, when she slipped out of her home and took a train for Washington. Collins told the license clerk he was 21 years old and the girl 22 The young man was indignant over his prospective father-in-law's interference, and seemed to think that his yeoman's pay of $38 a month would be sufficient on which to support a wife, at least until he got a better job."

"That's reasonable, isn't it?"
"A wagon that doesn't last is expensive no matter what price you pay for it."
"Suppose you buy three wagons, one after the other, and the three of them don't last as long as one Studebaker—which is the best bargain?"
"I didn't find this out myself. I heard my grandfather say it a good many years ago. He said he had proved that it paid to buy a Studebaker. I followed his advice to my own satisfaction."
"A wagon can't have life in it unless it has the material and work and finish in it. The Studebaker people have been making vehicles for sixty years. They ought to know how to make wagons right—and they do. They have the reputation because they've produced the goods. They don't put the name Studebaker on until the wagon's right, and when you see the name Studebaker on a vehicle of any kind it is your insurance of quality."
"That's why I buy a Studebaker. I trust a Studebaker wagon because I trust the people that make them. It's good business."
"A Studebaker promise is always made good."

Judge Swann in Dismay Orders New Trial For Mis Fitzhugh.

New York, June 26.—Astounding Judge Swann in the Court of General Sessions yesterday, two jurors who had sat in the case against Mrs. Randolph H. Fitzhugh, who had been induced to plead guilty to larceny, announced that they would have acquitted her on the evidence offered by the prosecution alone.

As a result, Judge Swann, dismayed into quoting Shakespeare, ordered a new trial before another judge, refusing to have anything more to do with the case.

The denouement followed argument on motion to set aside the plea of guilty and to substitute one of not guilty with a new trial.

Mrs. Fitzhugh's case has been unusual. Tried before Judge Swann last week on a charge of larceny, one of her accusers being a daughter of Harvey Fiske, the banker, the defendant had differed with Abraham Levy, her counsel, as to the case, and Levy withdrew. Mrs. Fitzhugh had been permitted to telephone to Washington, her home, in an effort to reach her own lawyer, Creed M. Fulton, but had been informed his telephone had been disconnected. Louis Spiegel was assigned by the court to conclude the case for her.

Mr. Fulton was in court today to argue for a new trial. He contended that the woman's constitutional rights had not been safeguarded in her counsel withdrawing at the critical period. He declared that as only the prosecution's side had been heard, there was no telling what jury might have done.

Judge Swann asked if some of the who heard the case were not present in court. Ten men arose. He asked if any of them would have acquitted the woman. To his astonishment two men came forward. The judge reopened the case and ordered a new trial.

WANT TOBACCO MONOPOLY.

Virginia Farmers to be Called Before Commission.

Washington, June 26.—A governmental monopoly of the tobacco business in the United States was advocated before the joint tobacco commission by T. H. Steele, representing the Farmers' Union at Brookneal, Va.

Two tobacco planters, C. P. Sanderson and R. T. Davis, of Cumberland, Va., opposed the proposed monopoly.

A renewed effort is to be made by the joint congressional commission investigating the sale of American tobacco to foreign countries to get at the cost of producing tobacco here. For that purpose three Virginia farmers will be called before the commission to testify regarding the cost of raising tobacco; and later, farmers from Kentucky and North Carolina will be called.

SNOW FALLS NEAR BOSTON.

Boston, Mass., June 26.—Although the thermometer was 80 degrees in the shade Tuesday the mercury dropped until overcoats were comfortable. Out in Waltham snow fell for about a minute and Moody street was sifted over with the white crystals before it stopped.

Waltham is the only place reporting snow, but the east wind is still blowing and the weather man says anything is possible in the way of weather in Boston. The thermometer registered 55 degrees last night.

TO THE OWNERS OF DOGS.

The laws of the city make it the duty of the mayor to give public notice to persons owning or harboring dogs to come forward and take out a license for the same from the City Auditor or be reported and fined, upon failure to do so. The license law requires this tax to be paid on or before July 1, 1913. The law also requires that the tag shall be worn on the collar of the dog. This is a requirement that can and must be complied with. The policemen are expected and directed to report to the police court the owners of all unlicensed dogs, and also are expected to locate all dogs sent away for the summer months and brought back in late fall; and to report such efforts to evade the payment of the license by their owners. The license on each dog, regardless of sex is One Dollar and fifty ($1.50) cents.
